(Current magazine ad for a $495. bug detector.)

The ad speaks for itself.
It – and others like it – have been running for years.
The focus is always BIG PROFITS, and NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY.
Solving your espionage problem is not even mentioned.

Between outright fraud and true expertise, many levels of incompetence exist.
Not all of them are this easy to recognize. When evaluating prospective vendors:
ask questions, check credentials, call us, and trust your instincts.
